

BLACK-FOOTED FERRET!

FROM THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN ARSENAL NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE

Check out this incredible predator/prey interaction captured by one of our lucky Service staff members! Black-footed ferrets eat about 100 prairie dogs each year. Much of their activity occurs at night or underground making this encounter a special chance to view the behaviors of both species.

